

CHIRMI ACHARYA

Date of birth: January 24, 1990

Address: 42-A, Parna-Kuti, Gangwal Park. Jaipur.

Phone: 9950563110

Email: chirmi@gmail.com

Chirmi Acharya holds a PhD in psychology which she completed with the support of UGS's JRF/SRF fellowship. Her area of interest in research is dance/performance studies, creativity, women/gender studies and positive psychology.

She is a trained Bharatnatyam dancer and a theatre practitioner. Chirmi has been recipient of Ministry of Culture's Young Artist Scholarship in theatre in which she worked on a project on 'aaharya abhinaya.'

She is a dance movement therapy facilitator certified by International Dance Council - UNESCO

Educational Qualifications:

- JRF Scholar pursuing Ph.D. in Psychology from University of Rajasthan
- M.Sc. in Psychology from University of Rajasthan
- Graduation (BSc) from Maharani's College securing 73.5%
- Senior secondary (CBSE board) 91% securing 3rd position at Bhartiya Vidya Bhawan Vidyashram, Jaipur

- Secondary examination (ICSE board) 90.5% securing 2nd position in Jaipur

Other Activities:

- Have worked as a PGT Psychology for 2 years for sessions 2015-16 and 2016-17 at Bhartiya Vidya Bhavan Vidyashram, Pratap Nagar, Jaipur.
- Visharad in Bharatnatyam from Bhatkhande University, Lucknow
- Dramatics- received Young Artist Scholarship (2013-15) in theatre from Ministry of Culture
- Was a part of Student's council at college at the undergraduate level
- Have interned at DARE- Because Entrepreneurs Do, an online magazine based in Bengaluru

Research Publications:

- Indian Classical Dances as Yoga: A Route to Powering Positive Psychological Traits- Journal of Psychosocial research, 11(2), 409-415
- Psychological Well Being and Self Esteem: A Study on Indian Classical Dancers- Indian Journal of Positive Psychology, 8(3), 389-391
- Locus of Control as a Predictor of Self Esteem and Achievement in School Going Adolescents- Indian Journal of Health and Well Being, 8(10), 1118-1120

